

Clinical supervisor

KIUNA INSTITUTION, DESIGNED BY AND FOR FIRST NATIONS, BUT OPEN TO ALL!

At Kiuna, our objective is to democratize access to post-secondary education for First Nations members. Our college has earned a reputation for its culturally adapted services and unique environment where programs, student services, human resources, teaching methods and materials are based on Indigenous cultures and traditions.

Job title: Clinical supervisor

Employment status: Full-time

Start date: Summer 2020

Annual salary: Between $58,701 and $83,550, according to Kiuna's salary scale

Workplace: Kiuna Institution

Job description

Under the supervision of the college administration, the clinical supervisor contributes his or her expertise in psychological support to the delivery of services to students and their children, and to the management of psychological and educational services provided by Kiuna's psychosocial services team (formed by a psychosocial support worker, a special education technician and an outreach worker who work with the college's academic support agent). The clinical supervisor coordinates, supervises and monitors the delivery of psychosocial services provided by the college and Skamon Childhood Services. The coordinator also provides training, supervision and support for the psychosocial services team and ensures continuous oversight during the school year.

Requirements

- Post-graduate degree in psychology.
- Five years of relevant experience.
- Oral and written proficiency in English and French. Knowledge of an Indigenous language is considered an asset.
- Knowledge of the field of education, specifically post-secondary education as well as characteristics unique to Indigenous communities.
- Thorough knowledge of First Nations from being a community member or from having worked in a First Nations community.

Working conditions

We offer competitive working conditions: pension fund, flexible cultural holidays, three weeks' annual vacation, sick leave, opportunity to telework, work schedule options, summer schedule, etc.
